

Assistant Actuarial Analyst

At NCCI Holdings, Inc., we realize our greatest asset is our team of more than 900 professionals working together every day to make our company the leading provider of workers compensation insurance data and research information. Read on to learn about the requirements for this opening.

Job Purpose:

Provides moderately complex actuarial analysis in support of NCCI's products and services.

Major Duties:

Completes assigned tasks in standard products, state rate filings, legislative pricings, reserving, and research projects .

Analyzes moderately complex information, develops concepts, and evaluates results. Verifies and documents factors used.

Develops and exercises actuarial judgment related to the technical, economic, and statistical processes.

Continues to study for actuarial exams

Develops expertise with actuarial systems, including NCCI's databases.

Required Education, Experience & Skills:

B.A or B.S. degree in mathematics, statistics, quantitative analysis, economics, or related field with a mathematical or statistical background. At least 1 Actuarial exam passed.

As key contributors to our success, our team members enjoy working in a casual, collaborative environment that offers state-of-the-art resources, advanced technologies, and a superior benefits package.

We require a drug screen and background check.

EEO/Smoke Free environment